This year's Conference will be held at the Institute of Nöetic Sciences (IONS) on their 200 acre campus, near Petaluma, in northern California. IONS is a nonprofit membership organization exploring the frontiers of consciousness, and is supportive of Theosophical endeavors. The campus consists of offices, a scientific laboratory, fully equipped conference rooms, dining facility and a retreat center. This is a beautiful site, with many outdoor activities for children and adults. Please visit www.ions.org to see pictures of the campus and links to all information.

The IONS' Retreat Center accommodates up to 120 overnight guests in five buildings. All housing accommodations are situated near to one another, and next to the West Room. All of the rooms have recently been renovated, and are simply and attractively appointed.

There are five modular units, or "dorms", each with eight bedrooms and two common bathrooms. We also offer two contemporary chalets, each of which has eleven bedrooms and four common bathrooms. Bedrooms are set up as either single occupancy or double occupancy with twin beds, and specified rooms accommodate couples with full-size beds. All bedrooms are carpeted, and feature a desk and clothing bureau. Linens, blankets and towels are provided for guests.
